SELECTED CURRENT RESEARCH

Research Assistant, Action Research & Collaboration

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

August 2019 – present Champaign, IL

Rape Prevention and Education Program Statewide Evaluation

Principal Investigator: Nicole E. Allen, Ph.D.

- Organize/coordinate the:
 - Evaluation Advisory Board, a group of preventionists and rape crisis center directors who provide feedback to the evaluation team; organize board invitations and board meetings; keep field notes and meeting minutes.
 - Interviews with preventionists across the state, secure IRB approval, lead scheduling with participants, and conduct team interviews.
 - Review of rape crisis center prevention plans; create coding form and codebook to extract data from state prevention plans; serve as direct supervisor for undergraduate data entrants.
 - Online partnership survey, to investigate rape crisis center partnerships with outside organizations; secure IRB approval; work in REDCap to create in-depth investigation of organization linkages; coordinate data collection and management with key informants.
 - Evaluation capacity building effort, work with preventionists to develop primary data collection opportunities at individual centers (for example: a survey for elementary school counselors to evaluate online adaptations of child sexual abuse prevention efforts).
- Attend partner meetings and webinars to help design evaluation study and understand the Center for Disease Control's public health approach to address sexual violence.
- Conduct literature reviews investigating protective factors, risk factors, and community and societal-level interventions regarding sexual violence prevention.

Research Assistant, Diversity Seminar/Community Psychology II Research Collaboration

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

December 2019 – present Champaign, IL

Incivility in Science Study (InSci Scoop)

Principal Investigator: Mark Aber, Ph.D.

- Conduct literature review on incivility to identify research gaps and propose novel research study for a collaboration of peers with diverse programs of research.

- Draft interview protocol for group review and incorporate team members' edits.
- Draft consent and recruitment materials. Collaborate with team members to secure IRB approval.
- Collaborate with team members to jointly organize weekly team meetings.
- Record study development via meeting notes.
- Conduct study interviews.

Independent Research, Action Research & Collaboration

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

December 2019 – present Champaign, IL

Mass Messaging for Gender-Based Violence Prevention and Response: A Scoping Review

- Conduct scoping review on research involving mass messaging pertaining to gender-based violence.
- Supervise/mentor undergraduate research assistants who receive course credit for their work, training them to conduct systematic literature searches (including how to scan/code titles and abstracts for inclusion criteria and how to perform systematic data extraction).

PAST RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Clinical Research Coordinator, Center for Psychotherapy Research, University of Pennsylvania

June 2017 – August 2019 Philadelphia, PA

Administrative Responsibilities

- Monitored grant budgeting, subcontract invoices, participant payments, and various research expenses (e.g., international conference travel reports).
- Served as the first line of communication with business administrators (for routing operations), IT support, and building management.
- Helped prepare 12 unique grant submissions to various funding sources (including NIMH, NIAAA, the Arnold Foundation, the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation).
 - Edited grant submissions for language clarity, completeness of thought, translation of scientific research design ideas, integrity of human subjects involvement, and APA style.
 - Helped gather necessary subcontract documents for community partnerships.
 - Prepared reference and human subjects sections.
 - Interpreted grant reviewer summary sheets and help draft responses.
 - Helped prepare grant resubmissions when applicable.
- Assisted in manuscript and presentation preparation.
- Managed and aided in interpretation of previous Center for Psychotherapy Research studies through HIPAA-compliant data storage and SPSS analysis.
- Interviewed, hired, and supervise undergraduate work-study students. Fostered clinical research interest and understanding; aided in senior student job applications.

- Began a summer internship program for undergraduates, coordinating with relevant University administrative personnel and PIs. Designed educational tasks and served as primary supervisor for the first summer intern at the Center.
- Ensured Center functioning by tracking office equipment and supply needs.

Feasibility of Behavioral Activation Trial in Community Mental Health

NIMH R34 MH108818

Principal Investigator: Paul Crits-Christoph, Ph.D.

- Interacted directly with patient participants. Screened, scheduled, consented, and compensated over 200 participants for baseline and follow-up (Month 1, 2, and 3) assessments.
- Administered all study assessments (baseline assessment = 4-5 hours; month assessments = 1 hour) and helped coordinate administration of HAM-D, CSSRS, and SCID with blind clinical evaluators. Administer Effort Expenditure for Rewards Task (EEfRT) at baseline and Month 3 assessments.
- Carried out safety protocols for suicidality, homicidality, child neglect, and mandated reporting concerns in partnership with outpatient clinic supervisor.
- Coordinated fair and speedy assignment of enrolled participants (to date: N = 61) to busy community therapist schedules. Advocated for ineligible patients regarding clinic waitlist placement.
- Served as the primary line of communication and collaboration with study therapists (N = 7).
- Relayed therapist and supervisor concerns to Principal Investigator. Resolve disputes with study therapists.
- Ensured that therapists are prepared for study appointments by providing BA manual supplies, recorders, and study measures.
- Built relationships with community mental health clinic employees (interns, case managers, supervisors, business employees, medical record coordinators, front desk staff, etc.) as study spokesperson.
- Prepared reports for business administrators to document participant payments.
- Created and sent recruitment and enrollment reports to study staff and research partners.
- Tracked and led honorarium payments to intake clinicians (N = 2 + clinical interns) and study therapists.
- Created Data and Safety Monitoring Committee reports (N = 3) and present to Data and Safety Monitoring Committee.
- Ensured compliance to NDA requirements; cleaned and uploaded data to the NDA, secure extensions as needed.
- Served as IRB liaison. Submitted and tracked all IRB modifications and continuing reviews; ensured IRB compliance in all activities; documented patient adverse events.
- Prepared annual NIH continuing reviews.
- Prepared detailed clinical updates for expert supervision; attended supervision sessions.
- Developed and revised proper data storage protocols.
- Documented activities in study SOP to ensure smooth transition between study staff.
- Supervised data entry with work-study students (N = 4).
- Independently researched mandated reporting requirements to provide study staff with more clarity.

Development of Electronic Quality Reporting System for Behavioral Activation for MDD in CMHC Setting
NIMH R21 MH116362

Principal Investigator: Mary Beth Connolly Gibbons, Ph.D.

- Helped edit and prepare grant application to secure funding.
- Independently planned, recruited for, and facilitated clinician focus groups (N = 2) and cognitive interviews with providers and patients (N = 20).
- Transcribed focus group audio recordings.
- Coordinated all IRB requirements, including initial protocol submission and modifications (N = 5).
- Coordinated graduate-level blind raters, who rated community therapy tapes.

Preliminary Work for Incorporating Patient Electronic Communications in Psychotherapy

Once Upon a Time Foundation

Principal Investigator: Paul Crits-Christoph, Ph.D.

- Helped edit and prepare grant application to secure funding.
- Coordinated all IRB requirements, including initial protocol submission and modifications (to date: N = 4).
- Drafted patient and clinician study surveys; incorporated feedback from investigators to finish final versions.
- Created clinician presentation to introduce potential participants to research field and study design.
- Independently recruited clinicians (to date: N = 7) and patient participants (to date: N = 118) in University of Pennsylvania outpatient clinic.
- Served as primary line of communication with psychiatrists and front desk staff.

Development and Validation of a Feedback System for Tracking and Improving Trust/Respect in an Economically Disadvantaged Behavioral Health Population

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Principal Investigator: Paul Crits-Christoph, Ph.D.

- Helped edit and prepare grant application to secure funding.
- Independently wrote and submitted initial IRB protocol.
- Helped research server and computing requirements to set up automated patient feedback system.
- Incorporated literature review on trust, respect, and alliance measures into suggestions for novel trust/respect study measure.
- Developed mock dashboard for feedback report.

Development of a Tool to Measure Patient Preferences for Contraceptives in Botswana

Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation

Principal Investigator: Paul Crits-Christoph, Ph.D.

- Helped prepare and submit IRB modifications, deviations, and continuing reviews.
- Assisted with preparation (content and rhetorical edits) of Phase I report and Phase II proposal to the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.
- Coordinated order and delivery of study supplies for University of Botswana.

Software to Measure Consumer Preferences in the Treatment of Depression

NIMH R21 MH108996

Principal Investigator: Paul Crits-Christoph, Ph.D.

- Helped edit and prepare grant application to secure funding.
- Independently wrote and submitted initial IRB protocol.

Penn Mental Health AIDS Research Center- Core C: Clinical Assessment Core

NIMH P30 MH097488-8100

Principal Investigator of Parent Grant: Dwight Evans, Ph.D.

Clinical Assessment Core Project Leader: Paul Crits-Christoph, Ph.D.

- Helped interview and hire Psy.D. students from local programs as diagnosticians.
- Helped organize diagnostician training in SCID-IV, HAM-D, and CSSRS. Attended training workshop.
- Aided in scheduling and organization decisions.
- Provided support to diagnosticians at community mental health clinic for logistical and safety concerns.
- Served as coordinator when primary coordinator takes vacation and sick time.

Once Upon a Time Foundation Consulting

Consultant: Paul Crits-Christoph, Ph.D.

- Researched and prepared PI suggestions for various social media monitoring applications.
- Incorporated various natural language analysis results and online mental health message board content into the creation of over 200 emails to test the Bark Parental Control monitoring system.
- Independently documented emails, coded system alerts, and interpreted findings.
- Independently drafted 15 page report on system testing, which was minimally edited by Dr. Crits-Christoph, and presented to the Foundation and research teams at Johns Hopkins University, the University of Pennsylvania, and Harvard University.
- Attended conference call with Foundation representative to describe system testing results.
- Generated one page bullet-point results briefing on second round of system testing.

Research Assistant, Wellesley College

January 2016 – May 2017 Wellesley, MA

- Managed and analyzed data for a longitudinal research study evaluating a leadership camp for adolescent females.
- Presented research poster at the 2017 Society for Research in Child Development conference.

Honors Thesis Student, Wellesley College Psychology Department

June 2016 – May 2017 Wellesley, MA

- Worked closely and met weekly with faculty mentor to create novel theory regarding the creativity and attitude change processes and design a randomized study.
- Recruited and administered study protocol to 120 randomized participants from undergraduate campus sample.
- Reported findings in lengthy APA-style paper and in presentations to thesis committee and Wellesley College community.

Research Intern, Howard University Hospital's Sleep and Stress Research Program

June – August 2016 Washington, DC

- Collected, managed, and analyzed data for two major research studies about trauma-related insomnia.
- Recruited participants by contacting local organizations, staffing a weekly table in the VA medical center lobby, calling previous study participants, and completing phone screeners.
- Conducted literature reviews and an independent research project.
- Observed and administered clinical interviews using the Structured Clinical Interview for DSM-5, Clinician Administered PTSD Scale, Duke Structured Interview for DSM-5 Sleep Disorders, and Columbia-Suicide Severity Rating Scale.
- Created and presented PowerPoint on ongoing research study at Clinical Research Meeting to doctors, nurses, and researchers.
- Gathered and structured information to begin a lab website.
- Observed CBT interventions for insomnia and substance use, and shadowed a clinical psychologist on pilot study.

CLINICAL TRAINING

University of Illinois Autism Clinic, Psychological Services Center

University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Supervisor: Dr. Amy Cohen, PhD

August 2020 – present
